1. HARLOW GARDENS, Tucson, AZ - With a little paint and creativity, blocks can bring attention to your miniature plants display.
2. GARLAND NURSERY, Corvallis, OR - Not ready to devote a ton of real estate to this category? No problem — miniature garden displays are flexible enough to work in just about any corner of the garden center.
3. M&M NURSERY, Orange, CA - Create shade gardens and sun gardens for shoppers with specific needs. Use signage to note the difference.
4. MESQUITE VALLEY GROWERS, Tucson, AZ - Inspire by reflecting local flair through miniature garden designs.
- 5-7. OAK PARK LAND & WATER, Swanton, OH - Show the versatility of miniature gardening by working it into a variety of places around your shop. And don't be bashful with the signage either.
8. HILLERMANN NURSERY, Washington, MO - Bring the outside in and create a display anywhere on the showroom floor mixing in birdbaths, stones and moss with your miniature garden SKUs.
9. POTTED, Los Angeles, CA - Use a variety of containers to get your miniature gardeners thinking outside of the box.
