

EXPECT FREQUENT STOPS

At Cultivate'14, AmericanHort's Retail Road Trip will travel up Ohio State Route 306 just east of Cleveland to visit the "auto mall" of garden centers. Here's a sneak peek of all four stops.

This deer-resistant display is a can't miss in an area overpopulated with deer.

The façade gives this retailer a blank canvas to inspire homeowners.

Each Breezewood entryway is merchandised with bright planters for those coming and going.

Have an off-limits area? Avoid the "Keep Out" sign and take the high road like Bremec's and simply block it with beautiful, custom container gardens.

Bremec's Pottery Chalet might be one of the seven wonders of the IGC world. From fountains to statues to pottery, this huge structure houses it all.

Permanent shelving units become a lot more flexible with attached signs made of chalkboard paint and chalk.

What exactly is full sun? You've heard it a million times. These unmistakable "sun" and "shade" signs provide that simple question with a simple-to-understand answer.

Petitti's does an excellent job using the name of its popular owner — Angelo — to build trust in the company brand.

Petitti's Color Your Garden collection is color blocked and located at the center of its greenhouse, making it easy for shoppers to treat the benches like a painter's palette.
